

CONTENTS VOLUME NINE

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

The Initiation of the Apprentice (pautrikah)

- The Unifying Contemplation of the Constituents of the Maṇḍala (maṇḍalātmānusamdhāna)
The Drawing and Worship of the Triple Trident Maṇḍala, verses 5-21ab, pages 2-11
The Worship of the Two Jars. Entering Nonduality by Mantras and Connecting Together Through the Vital Channels, verses 21cd-26ab, pages 11-13
Purifying Libation from the Argha Vessel, verses 26cd-27, page 13
Concerning the Animals Fit to be Offered (nivedyapaśuvistarāḥ)
Animal Offering May be Cooked or Uncooked, verse 28, pages 13-14
Eight Types of Sacrificial Animal, verses 29-36ab, 52cd-54ab, pages 14-17
Extracting the Vital Force and Essence of the Sacrificial Animal with the Breath, verses 36cd-47ab, 50cd-52ab, pages 17-20
The Victim's Soul is Made One (samarasa) With the Wheel of the Goddesses, verses 47cd-48ab, pages 20-21
Sacrificed by Means of Mantra, verses 48cd-50ab, page 21
The Teaching of the Tattvārthacintāmaṇi, verses 50cd-52ab, pages 22-23
The Heroic Sacrificial Animal, verses 52cd-54ab, pages 23-24
The Benefits of Animal Sacrifice to others and the Animal, verses 54cd-62cd, pages 24-30
The Best Sacrificial Animal Has Been Reborn as Such Six Times, verses 63-70, pages 30-34
Parts of the Animal to be Offered, verses 71-72, pages 34-35
The Propitiation of the Fire (agnitṛpti), verses 73-76, pages 35-36
The Inflaming (of the Teacher's) Own Essential Nature (svasvabhāvādīpanam), verses 77-94ab, pages 36-44
The Depositions
The Procedure for the Deposition of a Path on the Disciple's Body (śiṣyadehaga adhvanyāsavidhiḥ), verses 94cd-96, pages 44-45
The Variety of Paths to be Purified and their Purifiers (śodhyaśodhakādivaicitryam), verses 97-99, pages 45-47
The Projection of the Thirty-six Principles onto the Body, verses 100-113, pages 47-54
The Projection of the Path of the Worlds onto the Body (bhuvanādhvan), verses 114-131, pages 54-60
The Deposition of the Path of the Parts of Mantra (padādhvan), verses 132-139ab, pages 60-63
The Deposition of the Path of the Phonemes, verses 139cd-146, pages 63-66
The Deposition of the Path of the Forces (kalā), verses 147-150ab, pages 66-67
The Deposition of the (Current of Seventy) Purifying Mantras (śodhaka), verses 150cd-163ab, pages 67-74
The Initiations and Liberation
The Various Types of Initiation (dīkṣābheda), verses 163cd-195ab, pages 74-84
Conjunction to Progressively Higher Principles, verses 195cd-200ab, pages 84-86
No Differences in the Forms of Liberation, verses 200cd-201ab, page 86
Transgression of the Rules, verses 201cd-204ab (201cd-204ab), pages 86-87
Teacher should Liberate the Disciple by Any Means, verses 204cd-206ab (205-206), page 88
More Depositions
The Supreme Deposition (paro nyāsaḥ), verses 206cd-210 (207-211ab), pages 89-90
The Distribution of the Reality Levels Within the Parts of Parāparā Vidyā, verses 211-222 (211cd-223ab), pages 90-96
The Projection of the Purifying Mantras, verses 223-249ab (223cd-249), pages 96-97
The Deposition of Parāparā and the other Two Goddesses, verses 225-239ab (225cd-239), pages 97-104
Initiation Aided by Cognitive Yoga, verses 239cd-249ab (240-249), pages 104-109
The Essential Being and Purpose of Mantra (mantrasattāprayojanam)
Reflective Awareness as the Essential Nature of Mantra, verses 249cd-253 (250-254ab), pages 110-111
Śaiva Mantras Differ from other Mantras, verses 254-256 (254cd-257ab), pages 111-112
Reflective Awareness as the Basis of Language and the Transmission, verses 257-264 (257cd-265ab), pages 112-116
Common Language and Mantras Differ, verses 265-266 (265cd-267ab), 274cd-279ab (275abc-279), pages 117-118

A True Teacher is a Master of Mantra, verses 267-274ab (267cd-274), pages 119-125
The Clarity of the Object of Meditation Increases in Accord with the Decrease of Mental Discourse, verses 279cd-285ab (280-285), pages 125-128
Mantra Deity Close to Consciousness, verses 285cd-288ab (286-288), pages 128-129

The Dynamics of Initiation

Initiation may be into Ritual Action and also Conducive to Liberating Knowledge, verses 288cd-292
(289-293ab), pages 130-131

Initiation is Essential for Liberating Mantra Practice, verses 293-294 (293cd-295ab), pages 131-132

The Various Kinds of Conjunctions (yojanikābheda)

Reliance on One's Own Inherent Inner Strength (svabala), verses 295-297 (295cd-298ab), pages 132-133

One without Inner Knowledge or Yoga is Totally Dependent on the Teacher and Initiation, verses
298-301 (298cd-302ab), pages 134-135

Purification of the Disciple's Karma by Initiation, verses 302-311ab (302cd-311cd), pages 135-138

CHAPTER SEVENTEEN

What Needs be Done in the Procedure Concerning the Apprentice (vidheyaprakriyā vidhau)

Fashioning the Three Knots of the Sacred Thread (sūtrakṛpti), verses 1cd- 7ab, pages 139-143

The Purification of the Principles (tattvaśuddhi), verses 7cd-30, pages 143-144

The Formation of the Mantras that Invoke the Principles, verses 11cd-15, pages 145-148

Establishing Consciousness in the Principles and their Worship, verses 16-22ab, pages 148-151

The Power of the Semantics of Mantra, verses 22cd-26ab, pages 151-153

The Function of Mantra, verses 26cd-28ab, pages 153-154

Declaration of Intent Should Herald Ritual Action, verses 28cd-30ab, pages 154-155

Illumining the Body of the Disciple with the Movement of the Breath and Mantra, verses 30cd-33, pages 155-158

Giving Birth to the Disciple on Increasingly Higher Levels and Worlds with Trika Mantras and Oblations, verses
34-64, pages 158-168

The Burning of the Fetters (pāśadāhaḥ), verses 65-78ab, pages 168-172

The Conjunction with the Supreme Principle, verses 78cd-91, pages 172-178

The Yoga of the Offering of the Full Oblations

The First Full Oblation, verses 78cd-82, pages 173-174

The Second Full Oblation, verses 83-85ab, pages 174-175

The Third Full Oblation, verses 85cd-91, pages 175-178

Initiation for Worldly Benefits (bhogadīkṣā) by means of a Full Oblation, verses 92-97ab, pages 178-180

Initiation into the Disembodied form of Śiva Beyond the Principles, verses 97cd-99ab, pages 180-184

Emission of the Pure Principles by Means of a Full Oblation, verses 99cd-102, pages 184-185

The Pure States of the Principles, verses 103-111, pages 185-188

The Senses Bound and Liberated, verses 112-115ab, pages 188-189

Purification of the Principles with Trika Mantras, verses 115cd-117, pages 189-190

The Various Paths (adhvabheda): The Oblations Required for the Paths, verses 118-122, pages 190-192

CHAPTER EIGHTEEN

The Brief Initiation (sūkṣmā dīkṣā)

A Brief Direct Initiation Without Outer Supports, verses 1-3ab, pages 193-194

The Required Mantras and Oblations, verses 3cd-7, pages 194-196

The Teacher Must Be Well Qualified, verses 8-9, pages 196-198

CHAPTER NINETEEN

The Initiation of the Immediate Exit from the Body (sadyaḥsamutkramah)

The Initiation Whereby a Dying Man Attains Śiva at the Moment of Death, verses 1-3, pages 199-200

The Ascertainment of Impending Death (kālāvekṣā), verses 4, page 200

- Qualifications for the Initiation of the Immediate Exit from the Body, verses 5-9, pages 200-203
 The Deposition of the Razor (kṛpāṅyādinyāsaḥ) that Severs the Vital Points, verses 10-14, pages 203-207
 Severing the Vital Centres by the Circulation of the Breath in the Body (cāraḥ śarīragah), verses 15-23ab, pages 207-215
 Blocking the Breath by Agitating the Wheels along the Trident of Knowledge, verses (17-20), pages 215-216
 Immediate Exit by Another Mantra, verses (21-23ab), page 217
- The Procedure for the Brahmavidyā (brahmavidyāvidhiḥ)
 The Initiation that Brings About the Exit from the Body, verses 23cd-31ab, pages 218-220
 The Recitation of the Brahmavidyā
 The Brahmavidyā Recited by a Fellow Initiate to Liberate Him. Possible Objections and Response, verses 31cd-39 (39cd-40ab), (47) (47cd-48ab) - (50) (50cd-51ab), pages 220-224
 The Liberating Awakening of the Dying Man, verses 40-46 (40cd-47ab), pages 224-228
 The Dying Man Can Impart the Initiation to Himself, verses 51-55 (51cd-56), pages 228-230

CHAPTER TWENTY

The Initiation Validated by the Scales (tulādīkṣā)

- The Inner Purification (antaḥsaṃskāra) , verse 2, pages 231-232
 The Burning Seed and the Burning Away of the Three Impurities, verses 2-7, pages 233-235
 The Examination of the Attainment of Competence (adhikāraparīkṣā)
 The Initiation that Bears a Sign of Accomplishment, verses 8-11ab, pages 235-236
 The Procedure Concerning the Scales (tulāvidhi) , verses 11cd-12ab, pages 237-238
 The Initiation in Which the Purification of Impurity is Apparent by a Loss of Weight, verses 11cd-16ab, pages 239-243

CHAPTER TWENTY-ONE

The Initiation of Those Absent (pārokṣādīkṣā)

- The Procedure Concerning (Those Who are Absent, Whether) Dead or Alive (mṛtajīvadvidhi), verses 2-5, pages 244-246
 Those to Whom the Initiation that Rescues the Dead Can be Imparted, verses 6-15, pages 246-255
 The Media Through Which the Absent Disciple Can be Made Present, verses 16-18ab, pages 255-256
 Requirements for the Rite, verses 18cd-22ab, pages 256-257
 Placing the Absent Disciple in a Simulacrum, verses 22cd-24, pages 257-259
 The Teaching Concerning the Net (jālopadeśaḥ), verses 25-45, pages 259-270
 The Examination of the Strength and Weakness of the Group of Purifications (saṃskriyāgaṇe balābalavicāraḥ), verses 46-61, pages 270-276

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

The Extraction of Sectarian Signs (liṅgoddhāra)

- Those at a Lower Reality Level who Follow Lower Traditions are Extracted from There Along with their Sectarian Marks and Led Upwards Inspired by Grace, verses 2-14ab, pages 277-281
 The Proclamation (to the Lord) and (His) Consent (śrāvaṇam cābhyanujñānam), verses 14cd-19, pages 282-283
 Bestowing of One of the Seven Common Śaiva Mantras, verses 20-22, pages 283-284
 Purification and Liberation from Sin (śodhanam pātakacyutiḥ), verses 23-28ab, pages 285-286
 Purifying Fire Offering, verses 23-27ab, pages 285-286
 Converts Cannot be Full-fledged Teachers, verses 28cd-31ab, pages 286-287
 Concerning the Elimination of Doubt (śaṅkhācchedaḥ), verse 31cd, page 287
 The Procedure Applicable to Śaiva Teachers of a Lower Order and to those who are Obscured, verses 31cd-37ab, pages 287-289
 Ascertainment of a Disciple's Competence, verses 37cd-40ab, pages 289-290

Those Initiated in the Siddhāntas and Bhairava Tantras Can be Initiated into Trika, verses 40cd-42ab, page 291
Taking Initiation from Many Teachers Reinforces Knowledge, verses 42cd-46ab, pages 292-293
Veneration of the One Teacher who Bestows the Highest Knowledge, verses 46cd-48ab, pages 293-294

CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE

The Consecration of a Teacher (abhiṣecanam)

Examination of the Competence of the Postulate (parīkṣā)
Qualities Required of a Teacher, verses 2-7, pages 295-297
Defects of a False Teacher, verses 8-10, pages 297-298
The True Teacher, verses 11-12ab, page, pages 298-301
Teachers that Should be Avoided, verses 13cd-16ab, pages 301-302
The Teacher to be Adopted is One with Perfect Knowledge, verses 16cd-17ab, page 302
The Creation of a Teacher (ācāryakaraṇam), verses 17cd-20ab, page 303
Knowledge is the Sole Sign of Initiation, verses 20cd-22ab, pages 304-306
The Seven Sacrifices, verses 22cd-23ab, pages 306-307
Teacher Entrusts Ritual Implements and Authority to Disciple and Follows his Command, verses 23cd-26ab,
pages 307-308
A Knowledgeable Teacher Retains Authority and Must Transmit It, verses 26cd-28, pages 308-310
Teacher's Duty to Liberate His Disciple, verses 29-30, page 310
The Teacher's Mantra Observance (tadvratam), verses 31-32, pages 311-313
The Yoga of the Vow of the Observance of the Vidyā, verses 33-44ab, pages 313-317
The Removal of Knowledge from a Deceitful Disciple (haraṇam mateḥ) and the Signs of His Obscuration, verses
44cd-64, pages 317-325
The Teacher Should Help an Obscured Disciple when He Can, verses 65-69, pages 325-327
Better to Follow an Inferior Doctrine and Give it Up than Give up a Superior One, verses 70-71, pages 327-328
Only the Teacher Who has Made the Disciple Fall Can Elevate Him Again, verses 72-75, pages 328-330
A Trika Master is the Highest. If He Dies One Should Take Refuge in Another. verses 76-77, page 330
Disqualifying Defects in a Teacher and Disciple, verses 78-89ab, pages 331-332
Abandon a Teacher with Pernicious Defects, verses 83-89ab, pages 332-334
Those Who are Graced May Remove their Own Obscuration to Some Degree, verses 89cd-96, pages 334-338
The Categories of those Deceitful Teachers (tadvibhāgaḥ), verses 97-101ab, pages 338-340
The Consecration Into the State of an Adept (SāDhakatvam), verses 101cd-103ab, pages 340-341

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOUR

The Funerary Rites (antyeṣṭih)

The Qualified Recipient (adhikārin), verses 2-4, 6-11ab, pages 342-344
The Rite of Passage (samskāraḥ), verses 5, 11cd-16, pages 345-348
The Procedure according to the Kulagahvara, verses 11cd-17ab, pages 348-350
The Procedure according to the Dīkṣottara, verses 17cd-20, pages 350-353
Its Purpose (tatprajānam), verses 21-24ab, pages 353-354

CHAPTER TWENTY-FIVE

The Fashioning of the Offerings to the Ancestors (śrāddhakṛpti)

The Purpose of the Rite (prajānam) and Times when it Should be Performed, verses 2cd-4ab, page 356
Identifying the Fettered Aspect with the Experient thereby Becoming Śiva, verses 4cd-9, pages 357-359
No Procedure is Necessary for the Deceased who Knows Reality, verses 10, page 359

The Days of the Teacher's Enlightenment and Birth are Sacred Days (parvan), verses 11-12cd, pages 360-361
The Procedure for the Channels of the Breath (nāḍīvidhiḥ), verses 13-14ab, 19ab-21ab, pages 361-362
The Worship of the Assembly When Performing śrāddha for the Ancestors, verses 14cd-18, pages 363-364
The Bestowal of Worldly Benefits (bhoga) and Liberation (bhogaṃokṣadānam), verses 21cd-29, pages 365-368

CHAPTER TWENTY-SIX

The Remaining Observance (śeṣavṛttinirūpaṇam)

The Purpose of the Remaining Observance (prayojanaṃ śeṣavṛtteḥ), verse 2, pages 369-370
Teacher Instructs as to the Daily Conduct, Including Ritual and Mantra, verses 3-20, pages 370-377
Mantras are Letters even so they are Powerless if Drawn from a Book, verses 21-25ab, pages 377-379
The Teacher Imparts Trika Mantras in Secret, verses 25cd-29ab, pages 379-380
The Daily Procedure (nityavidhi), verses 29cd-72, pages 380-398
    Worship at the Junctures of the Day (sandhyopāsana), verses 29cd-37ab, page 380-382
    The Regular Worship on the Sacrificial Surface (nityārcā sthaṇḍile), verses 37cd, page 382
        Invocation (āvāhana), verses 37cd-51ab, pages 382-387
        Libation (tarpaṇa), verses 51cd-54ab, pages 388-389
        Worship with Whatever Expands Consciousness, verses 54cd-55ab, pages 389-390
        Rites are Fixed for Those Who Seek Worldly Benefits, Not for Those Who Aspire to Liberation, verses 55cd-57, pages 389-390
Ritual Action Aimed at Oneness Brought About by Factors that Instil Bliss, verses 58-61, pages 390-392
Hymn to Inner Worship, verses 62cd-65, pages 392-394
Manner of Worship with this Hymn and Conclusion, verses 66-76, pages 394-398

CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVEN

The Worship of the Liṅga (liṅgārcā)

The Many Kinds of Liṅga (liṅgasvarūpaṃ bahudhā), verse 2, page 399
    Higher Secret Mantras should not to be Used Externally, verses 2-8, pages 400-404
    Installation of a Deity by Oneself or by the Teacher, Into a Liṅga Anywhere or Into an Iconic
        Representation, verses 9-20ab, pages 404-407
    Deity May be Installed and Worshipped in a Skull, verses 20cd-21ab, page 407
    Characteristics and Features of a Skull, verses 21cd-29, pages 408-413
    A Description of the Varieties of Rosaries (akṣasūtranirūpaṇam), verses 30-39, pages 413-417
The Sacrificial Jar, verses 40-43, pages 417-419
Other Supports on which to Worship the Deity, verses 44-49, pages 418-420
The Various Types of Worship (pujābhedaḥ), verses 50-59, pages 421-424

Appendices to Volume Nine

Appendix to Chapter Sixteen: Animal Sacrifice according to Chapter Twenty of the Netratāntra, pages 425-436
Appendix to Chapters Seventeen and Eighteen: The Deposition of the Tattvas, pages 437-442
Appendix A to Chapter Nineteen: The Sixteen Supports, the Six Wheels, the Three Targets and the Five Voids,
    pages 443-451
Appendix B to Chapter Nineteen: Time and the Conquest of Death, Kubjikāmata chapter 23, pages 452-456
Appendix to Chapter Twenty-two: The Seven Common Mantras, page 457